

Get Involved

|   |   |
|---|---|
| Asian Americans Advancing Justice-Asian Law Caucus: https://www.advancingjustice-alc.org/ | The Advancing Justice – Asian Law Caucus is committed to the pursuit of equality and justice for all sectors of our society with a specific focus on addressing the needs of low-income, immigrant, and underserved Asian and Pacific Islanders. Through multiple criminal justice reform and legal rights programs, legal clinics, litigation and campaigns, the organization promotes a democratic society where race, class, and immigration status are not barriers to full participation in American life. |
| Black Alliance for Just Immigration: https://baji.org/  | Black Alliance for Just Immigration (BAJI) educates and engages African-American and Black immigrant communities to organize and advocate for racial, social, and economic justice through local committees in New York, Georgia, California, and Arizona that provide training, technical assistance, and skills-building opportunities.   |
| Black Immigration Network: https://www.blackimmigration.net                                    | Black Immigration Network (BIN) brings together black-led organizations and programs to advance just immigration policies and promote cultural shifts needed in our communities. The BIN kinship provides a safe, communal space for diverse black communities to connect, engage, and advocate for equality and justice for all.   |
| California Immigrant Policy Center: https://caimmigrant.org/   | The California Immigrant Policy Center (CIPC) is a constituent-based statewide immigrant rights organization with offices in Los Angeles, Sacramento, San Diego, and Oakland that works to fight mass detentions and deportations, support immigrant integration, promote health and public benefits, achieve economic justice, and lead regional capacity building projects.   |
| Centro Legal de la Raza: https://centrolegal.org/  | Centro Legal de la Raza is a comprehensive legal services agency protecting and advancing the rights of immigrant, low-income, and Latino communities through bilingual legal representation, education, and advocacy. The organization combines quality legal services with know-your-rights education and youth development, to promote access to justice for thousands of individuals and families throughout Northern and Central California.   |
| Coalition for Humane Immigration Rights: http://www.chirla.org  | The Coalition for Humane Immigrant Rights (CHIRLA) works collaboratively to achieve a just society fully inclusive of immigrants. CHIRLA organizes and serves individuals, institutions and coalitions to build power, transform public opinion, and change policies through civic engagement, community education, legal immigration services, organizing, and policy and advocacy.  |
| Immigrant Legal Resource Center: https://www.ilrc.org  | Immigrant Legal Resource Center (ILRC) trains attorneys, paralegals, and community-based advocates who work with immigrants around the country to promote a democratic society that values diversity and the rights of all people. Key focus areas include civic participation, policy advocacy, and technical assistance.  |
| Mujeres Unidas y Activas: http://mujeresunidas.net   | Mujeres Unidas y Activas (MUA) is a grassroots organization of Latina immigrant women that promotes personal transformation and builds community power for social and economic justice through the Caring Hands Workers Association, civic engagement, political education, leadership development, language translation, technical assistance, and various support groups and services.  |
| National Immigration Law Center: https://www.nilc.org  | The National Immigration Law Center (NILC) is dedicated to defending and advancing the rights of immigrants with low income through impact litigation, policy analysis and advocacy, and various strategic communications, training workshops, publications, and legal counsel services.  |

Get More Information

|  |  |
|--|--|
| We Belong Too: A Resource Guide of Inclusive Practices in Immigrations Law and Policy: available at http://haasinstitute.berkeley.edu (under "publications") | Based on nearly three years of research on best practices and policies related to immigration and incarceration in the US, this resource guide highlights inclusive policies and practices, supplemented by case studies centered at the intersection of immigration and incarceration in the United States. |
| Legalizing Othering: available at http://haasinstitute.berkeley.edu (under "publications")   | This report on the anti-Sharia movement in the United States addresses the legalized othering of Muslim communities across the nation through anti-Muslim legislation and bills between the years 2000 and 2016.   |
| Moving Targets: An Analysis of Forced Global Migration: available at http://haasinstitute.berkeley.edu (under "publications")                                | This research report investigates the historical and contemporary causes of forced migration, and the challenges and capacities of national and international refugee protections and resettlement efforts.  |

Get More Information

|   |  |
|---|--|
| California Survey on Othering & Belonging:https://haasinstitute.berkeley.edu/california-survey-othering-and-belonging | Based on a 2017 statewide public opinion poll to better understand how Californian's intergroup and identity perceptions interact with attitudes towards policy, social values, and targeted messages, this study provides a baseline for understand where the state and region are in relation to core pillars of progressive agendas.  |
| Blueprint for Belonging: https://haasinstitute.berkeley.edu/b4b  | Blueprint for Belonging (B4B) includes over 20 organizations united in achieving transformative change in California through the development of a strategic narrative that underpins collective work across movements, issues, and policies. This project is centered on inclusion and belonging for all marginalized groups, eliminating racialized inequality, creating empathetic identities that bridge differences, and promoting an inclusive and responsive government. |
| Othering & Belonging Journal—Issue 3:http://www.otheringandbelonging.org/issue-three-fall-2018/  | In this issue of Othering & Belonging focuses on the most public face of othering, the children traumatized by "family separations" policy who are not only wards in need of protection, but also witnesses, accountability partners, vehicles of empathetic imagination, and inheritors and re-shapers of the institutions and communities we construct now.  |
| Othering & Belonging Journal—Issue 2:http://www.otheringandbelonging.org/issue-two-spring-2017/  | Published after the 2016 elections, this second issue of Othering & Belonging is focused on hope—hope built not only on the aspirations articulated by groups around the world, but also on the emergence of new organizational formations whose practices are meant to enact inclusiveness and belonging.   |
| Othering & Belonging Journal—Issue 1:http://www.otheringandbelonging.org/issue-1/  | The inaugural issue of Othering & Belonging: Expanding the Human Circle of Concern, includes a feature article by John Powell and Stephen Menéndez on "The Problem of Othering", which the authors contend is the definite problem of the 21st century.  |
| Protecting Immigrant Families:https://protectingimmigrantfamilies.org   | This website provides updates, resources, and actions that people can take to support immigrants, including the opportunity to submit comments on the proposed "public charge" federal rule. Users can download factsheets and state-specific materials, review community education resources and research, and identify campaign events.  |

Continue the Conversation

|  |   |
|--|---|
| Cal Performances, "Citizenship Series" (Oct - Nov), UC Berkeley Zellerbach Hall: https://calperformances.org/learn/berkeley-radical/2018-19/citizenship-within-and-without-article.php | This season Cal Performances, as part of the Berkeley RADICAL programming, is focusing an entire series on cultural identity, community, and conflict in a selection of five programs grouped under the theme of "Citizenship. Performances begin in October and continue through March 17th.   |
| Undocumented Tales (Nov. 17), UC Berkeley 391 Barrows Hall: https://www.crg.berkeley.edu/events/undocumented-tales/  | Undocumented Tales: A Panel on Comedy and Joy in the Wake of Illegality is based on a YouTube web series that follows the journey of Fernando Gutierrez, an undocumented queer immigrant from Mexico living in Los Angeles, and brings together the intersections of immigration status, homophobia/transphobia, class, and race to portray the realities of what it means to be both undocumented and queer in the United States.                          |
| 2019 Othering & Belonging Conference (April 8-10), Oakland, CA: http://conference.otheringandbelonging.org  | This focused gathering of committed stakeholders is meant to catalyze deeper synergy, spark new and innovative collaborations across disciplines, and propel greater work and cohesion to tackle the extraordinary challenges faced by our world today.   |
| Rising Immigrant Scholars through Education (RISE), UC Berkeley  | RISE is a student run organization that develops student leadership skills in organizing from the bottom up to create a safe space for undocumented students on campus. RISE provides support services, leadership training, and promotes collective empowerment of undocumented students at UC Berkeley. For more information contact riseatberkeley@gmail.com   |
| Borders and Bodies Collective, UC Berkeley   | The Borders and Bodies Collective aims to raise consciousness around immigration and health with a vision to create a safe space to discuss health issues affecting immigrant communities, increase the visibility of immigrant health, and engage in critical discussions to better understand and address the key community issues. For more information contact bordersbodiescollective@gmail.com |
| Berkeley Interdisciplinary Migration Initiative: https://bimi.berkeley.edu   | This interdisciplinary network of researchers places the social, political, legal and economic dynamics of immigration in the Bay Area within global trends of economic mobility, forced migration and family reunification in order to seek a holistic picture of migration that embraces new data-gathering technologies as well as embedded, on-the-ground fieldwork that draws on the expertise of faculty, students and the communities being studied. |